

Benefits of A Trained Dog

Creates a bond between you and your dog

Teaches him to come when he is called

Teaches him to sit and stay when he is told

Prevents him from straying and being a nuisance to neighbors

Teaches him to be well-mannered around visitors

Makes him welcome wherever he goes

Teaches him to walk without pulling and jumping

Prevents him from taking over the house and being destructive

Allows handling for examination

Develops a routine, gives the dog focus and eliminates stress

Establishes you as the leader
